SUNDAY 13TH OCTOBER 2019

Lectern Edition: 1009 Pew Edition: 713 Liturgical Colour: Green

THE COLLECT

Almighty God,
you have made us for yourself,
and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you:
teach us to offer ourselves to your service, that here we may have your peace, and in the world to come may see you face to face;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

THE FIRST READING

Jeremiah 29. 1, 4-7

A reading from the book of Jeremiah.

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God

THE PSALM

Psalm 66. 1-11

Come now and see the works of God who holds our souls in life.

Be joyful in God, all you lands;
sing the glory of his name;
sing the glory of his praise.
Say to God, 'How awesome are your deeds! because of your great strength your enemies cringe before
you. R

All the earth bows down before you, sings to you, sings out your name.' Come now and see the works of God, how wonderful he is in his doing towards all people. R

He turned the sea into dry land, so that they went through the water on foot, and there we rejoiced in him.

In his might he rules for ever;
his eyes keep watch over the nations; let no rebel rise up against
him. R

Bless our God, you peoples;
make the voice of his praise to be heard; Who holds our souls in life, and will not allow our feet to slip.
For you, O God, have proved us;
you have tried us just as silver is tried. R

You brought us into the snare;
you laid heavy burdens upon our backs. You let enemies ride over our heads; we went through fire and water; but you brought us out into a place of refreshment. R

THE SECOND READING

2 Timothy 2. 8-15

A reading from the second letter of Paul to Timothy

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David — that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained.

Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself. Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening.

Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

THE GOSPEL

Luke 17. 11-19

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

For all things give thanks, because this is what God expects you to do in Jesus Christ.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Listen to the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Luke Glory to you, O Lord.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.
